Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Eugene Dannen and Dale Hysell exchanged their wedding vows on July 2, 1960, in the Second Reformed Church parsonage at Lennox, South Dakota, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, Eugene and Dale gave life and love to four children, Lori, Bobby, Bradley and Anthony, who in turn presented them with nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Eugene is retired from a career with John Morrell's and the Chancellor Fire Department, and Dale has worked for various schools as a cook and bus driver, worked in a restaurant, and is currently a preschool aide; and,

Whereas, Eugene enjoys doing wood working projects and taking care of his Trans Am; Dale likes to sew and do craft projects; and, together, they enjoy traveling to visit family and friends, attending grandchildren and great-grandchildren's activities, and helping others whenever there is a need; and,

Whereas, Eugene and Dale are members of the Reformed Church at Chancellor; and,

Whereas, Eugene and Dale will celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary at a dinner in their honor on August 7, 2010, followed by a dance, which will be open to the public, and it is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 7, 2010, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
